

Managerial Reorganization within the CAA

The Civil Aeronautical Authority (CAA) informs that, starting from April 8, 2026, changes have been made at the management level of the institution.

In this context, Mr. Evgheni Kostețki, Deputy Director of the CAA, has been promoted to the position of Director of the Civil Aeronautical Authority. At the same time, Mr. Andrei Cebanu will assume the position of Deputy Director, responsible for the operational segment.

Mr. Evgheni Kostețki has over 20 years of experience in the field of civil aviation, including 7 years within the European Organisation for the Safety of Air Navigation (EUROCONTROL). He has also accumulated 15 years of experience as a national coordinator for continuous monitoring activities in relations with the International Civil Aviation Organization and has served as co-secretary of the Republic of Moldova – European Union Joint Committee for the implementation of the Common Aviation Area Agreement.

The Civil Aeronautical Authority reaffirms its firm commitment to ensuring the continuity of strategic projects and to further strengthening the implementation of international standards in the field of flight safety and aviation security.
