

Republic of Moldova Awarded by ICAO for Progress in Aviation Security

The Civil Aviation Authority proudly announces that the Republic of Moldova has received the ICAO Council President Certificate, in recognition of the significant progress made in establishing an effective aviation security oversight system and in implementing ICAO's Standards and Recommended Practices (SARPs).

The award was presented during the 42nd ICAO Assembly, held in Montréal, Canada.

This recognition confirms the valuable work of national institutions and experts who contribute daily to the development of a safe, sustainable, and internationally aligned civil aviation sector.

